

Directions: From the Bruce highway, travel 4km through Calliope to the Gladstone/Monto Road. Turn left, then travel 26km and watch for a sign on the left. To get to the Boynedale Bush camp, drive approximately 1.9km down the dirt road. You will pass the lookout on the left and then cross the railway line. Follow the signs to the camp grounds located on the edge of Lake Awoonga.

Information: Boynedale Bush Camp is a basic bush camping facility, providing composting toilets, fire rings, picnic tables and some shelters. Campers are permitted to stay for up to 7 days. Basic boat access is provided nearby. NB: no running water is provided, campers must bring their own supply. Note also that the last 1.9km of road off the Gladstone/Monto Road is unsealed, and may become boggy in wet weather.

Directions: From the highway, travel 4km through Calliope to the Gladstone/Monto Road. Turn left, then travel 26km and watch for a sign on the left. To get to the Boynedale Bush camp, drive approximately 1.9km down the dirt road. You will pass the lookout on the left and then a

Information: Boynedale Bush Camp is a basic bush camping facility, providing composting toilets, fire rings, wheelie bins, picnic tables and some shelters. Campers are permitted to stay for up to 7 days. Basic boat access is provided nearby. NB: no running water is provided, campers must bring their own supply. Note also that the last 1.9km of road off the Gladstone/Monto Road is unsealed, and may become boggy in wet weather.